”WALKING THE TALK”

- 1. Change drivers why do we need collaboration beyond organizational boundaries
- 2. Data & value how can we create and capture value together
- 3. Dynamic collaboration capability challenges and opportunities in the energy sector
- 4. Discussion and conclusions

CHANGE DRIVERS

A collage of images representing various change drivers. The top row features a satellite map of a city, a traffic jam with cars, and an oil pumpjack. The middle row shows a volcanic eruption, a sunset, and a futuristic digital figure. The bottom row depicts elderly people in wheelchairs and a futuristic digital figure. The text 'CHANGE DRIVERS' is overlaid on the top row, and 'DIGITALIZATION' is overlaid on the bottom row.

DIGITALIZATION

ABOUT COLLABORATION

“Ecosystems will account for 30 % of global revenues in 2025”

Partnering in new age of ecosystems will be critical for those who aspire to become the out-performers of the next decade and beyond”

VALUE CREATION AND VALUE CAPTURE

ENERGYSAMPO IN A NUTSHELL

EnergySampo: Collaboration for Impact

Together the companies invest

200 MEUR
in R&D annually

Impact Potential: 100+ BEUR market for scalable solutions, reduced CO2 emissions creating 8000 jobs

EXAMPLE: ENERGYSAMPO

- Energy Vaasa
- Energy Sampo
- Pilots
- ABB Veturi
- Wärtsilä Veturi

ENABLING COLLABORATION

CHALLENGES

- Identifying the “customer”: Who has an interest to solve the problem?
- Leadership: Balancing competition and collaboration (co-opetition)
- Fear of losing control: Traditional views on strategy and organization

SOLUTION COMPONENTS

- Right partners: Finding lead actors who can ignite collaboration
- Leadership: Orchestrator as a “neutral party” who can mediate between motivations
- Trust: Enabling organizational structures and legal agreements

ECOSYSTEM LEADERSHIP

THE POWER OF WE

- 1. Systemic problems call for systemic solutions and very few organizations or people can make it alone
- 2. Digitalization enables new business models but transformation from the traditional organization centric approach calls for new organizational structures
- 3. It is both rational AND emotional things do not move forward if the purpose is not clear
